Memorial Day in Springs Simple

Simple rites in honor of those who paid the supreme sacrifice in service of our country marked observance of Memorial Day in Palm Springs today.

Expansion Of Hotel Is Clear

By JACK KNUDSON

Announced plans for expansion of the Howard Manor Hotel in Palm Springs probably will be carried through despite a legal snarl regarding financing problems of the operation, it was learned today.

Sale of the hotel and plans for reconstruction of the colorful hostelry were disclosed earlier this week by a Los Angeles firm.

But the legal status of the transaction was clouded by litigation between Samuel DeSarno, the present owner, and David Margolis, one of the former owners.

Clarification

Some clarification came in the deal yesterday in Superior Judge Merrill Brown's court when a receivership that had been ordered against the hotel operations was lifted.

Judge Brown said, in effect, that the ex parte receivership, was not justified. This was a legal harness placed upon the hotel operation at the request of Margolis, who holds a trust deed against the property.

Judge Brown's ruling returned the operation to control of DeSarno, but it leaves undecided a foreclosure procedure filed by Margolis.

This suit, Margolis said, was filed through concern over encumbrance of the property by unpaid taxes. But Margolis also said he has every hope that the matter will be cleared up at an early date.

Has Hope

"I hope this new move for the hotel is successful," Margolis said. "I think this will be good for Palm Springs."

Margolis referred to plans announced by DeSarno for demolition of most of the present structure and reconstruction that will expand the facility to 152 bedrooms. At present the hotel, with cottages, has 44 rooms.

Expansion plans will leave unchanged the present Celebrity Lounge and dining room, which are a widely known tourist attraction.

Chance of Income Tax Cut Now Hinges on Recession

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Talk of a possible tax cut to stimulate the economy appeared premature today even though some of the talk came from high administration officials.

The Kennedy administration was keeping a close watch on the economy in the wake of the wild gyrations of the stock market during the last few days.

Politicians had little doubt that President Kennedy would call for a quick cut in income taxes, if his economic advisers should conclude that the stock markets situation heralds the beginning of a recession. A significant boost in unemployment would threaten to imperil Democratic prospects in next November's congressional elections.

But Kennedy's top economic advisers are insisting that the economy is in good shape. This view was strongly espoused Tuesday by Chairman Walter Heller of the President's Council of Economic Advisers in a talk to a private gathering of congressional Democrats.

"The ironic thing" about the stock market's tumble, Heller told them, is that it occurred "when all the indicators on the economic front were moving up... not a little bit but moving up rapidly."

Some government economists said that stock prices had soared too high in relation to earnings and had now been brought down to more realistic levels. The market Tuesday recovered part of Monday's sharp losses.

Commerce Secretary Luther Hodges started the tax-cutting talk at a news conference Tuesday morning when the market was still going down.

Hodges said it was entirely possible that the recent behavior of the market would make it desirable for the administration to ask Congress to put tax reductions into force this year instead of adhering to its present timetable for major tax revision in 1963.

Democratic congressional leaders said there was no indication at their weekly legislative meeting with the President Thursday morning that Kennedy planned any specific action to bolster the stock market.

Red Rebels Offensive On Again

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—Pro Communist rebels have launched a new offensive on Ban Houei Sai, forcing the Royal government garrison and its U.S. advisers to evacuate the strategic town on the Thai border, a U.S. military spokesman said today.

The spokesman said the rebels hit the town this morning with a heavy artillery barrage. He said most of the government troops had fled across the Mekong River into Thailand.

The report of the bombardment followed an announcement that two U.S. military advisers missing since Sunday had been found unharmed near Ban Houei Sai in northwestern Laos, and flown to safety in a helicopter. Presumably they evacuated with the others.

The U.S. spokesman said most of the 800-man Royal garrison at Ban Houei Sai had fled to Thailand by this morning. Some U.S. military advisers and Laotian army officers who stayed behind finally were forced to withdraw in the face of the rebel artillery bombardment, he said.

It was not immediately known whether the town itself had been occupied by the attacking rebels, the spokesman said.

This was the second time this month that a pro-Communist drive against Ban Houei Sai has routed government defenders across the river into Thailand where American combat troops have been deployed.

A U.S. spokesman said the two missing American instructors were picked up by helicopter about five miles from Ban Houei Sai and flown to friendly hands.

The rebels were identified as SFC. Virgil Murphy of Van Buren, Ind., and Sgt. Merle Loo-bey of Seattle, Wash.

Race 'Fix' Brings Riot For Track

YONKERS, N.Y. (UPI)—Nearly 1,000 trotting track fans yelling "fix" rioted at Yonkers Raceway Tuesday night, forcing cancellation of the last race and causing an estimated $100,000 damage.

The management of the raceway, one of the most modern and beautiful in the country, refunded all bets on the ninth race which was called shortly before midnight when hundreds of fans invaded the track. Bettors got back about $265,000.

The disturbance began when a rush of betting money dropped the odds on a longshot horse, Miss Chief Moken, from 10 to 1 to 5 to 2 shortly before the starting bell for the eighth race. Miss Chief Moken hadn't won a race since last November.

Booing started as the tote board showed the diminishing odds. It rose in volume as the race began with Miss Chief Moken in the lead. There was a roar of anger as the longshot finished two and one half lengths in the lead, paying $7.30.

At intermission hundreds of fans lined the track fence shouting approval. One man, identified as James Green, New York, burst through the fence beckoning the other men to follow. He was hit by the mobile starting gate which was rolling at 35 miles an hour. The horses got off to a jumbled start and were ordered off the track at the quarter post.

The crowd of 31,054 in the stands rained beer cans onto the track, striking the departing horses. Hundreds more angry fans streamed onto the track and set dozens of small bundles of programs and other papers afire.

They ran riot, burning many tribune seats and attempting to set the ultra-modern structure itself afire. Others tore down concessions stands and burned them wrecked bars, scattered food and china and pulled down light stanchions. Bricks were heaved through windows, fences demolished and tote boards smashed.

Suspects in Peyote Case Bound Over

Six persons charged with narcotics violations — involving an exotic Indian drug called peyote — were bound over to Superior Court following arraignment Tuesday in Palm Springs' Desert Municipal Court.

Held under bail ranging from $1,050 to $2,625 each were Gerald D. Kelly, 31; his wife, Irene, 33; Samuel L. Komie, 38; Arthur C. Grady, 28; John G. McGraw, 30, and Andre Fairmont (also known as Fremont), 26. All are due for hearings in Superior Court at Indio June 8.

All of the defendants were arrested in a raid at the Kelly home, 62-607 E. Ramon Road Palm Springs, early Monday when arresting officers said they also seized a quantity of peyote.

The raid climaxed a prolonged stake-out by officers which Police Chief A. G. Kettmann said was started after an attractive woman was found unconscious, apparently drugged, in the sandy desert near the Kelly home.

'GREAT SPIRITUAL AWAKENING'

And Another Billy Hits Chicago

CHICAGO (UPI) — Evangelist Billy Graham prepared to follow in Billy Sunday's footsteps in opening a three-week campaign tonight for a "great spiritual awakening" in Chicago.

Graham, with nearly three years of preparation and the efforts of thousands behind him, will formally open his Greater Chicago Crusade in the massive new McCormick Place.

Officials of the hall said 40,000 chairs were being set up.

Services will be held nightly in McCormick Place until June 17 when the final rally will be held in Mammoth Soldier Field, which holds 104,000. However, Graham said it was possible Soldier Field could be leased for an additional week.

Supremist Governor In Alabama

By United Press International
Alabama voters Tuesday selected George C. Wallace, 42, a white supremacist and former circuit judge to be their governor for the next four years.

Wallace, who stumped on a platform to maintain segregation with the same vigor that gave him two state Golden Gloves boxing titles, won solidly over state Sen. Ryan McGraw, who held somewhat more moderate views on racial issues.

Latest returns in the Democratic primary runoff, tantamount to election, showed Wallace leading McGraw 331,445 to 267,223 with 155 of the state's 3,557 boxes still unreported.

In Kentucky, Sen. Thruston B. Morton won renomination easily in the Republican primary election. Lt. Gov. Wilson W. Wyatt won the Democratic nomination to oppose him in November.

In Florida, one of President Kennedy's staunchest supporters, L.B. (Buck) Vocolle, who had based his race on down-the-line support for the administration, lost in a Democratic congressional runoff to former state Sen. John Sutton of Orlando.

The Alabama race also featured a low-man-out contest among the state's nine congressmen. Alabama must give up a congressman because of population shifts revealed in the last federal census.

Skepticism on Estes Report

FRANKLIN, Tex. (UPI)—Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said he hopes today a compromise between federal and state authorities over a controversial 175-page Billie Sol Estes report will work, but he has reservations.

The agreement provides that Dist. Judge John Barron study the entire report. Barron will decide today or Thursday which parts, or possibly all, of the report a state grand jury needs to help investigate the death of farm official Henry H. Marshall.

Separated Siamese Girls OK

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Siamese twin girls, 6 weeks old, who were separated in a complicated five-hour operation, were reported in good condition today at Children's Hospital in San Francisco.

Dr. Pieter de Vries who headed a team of four surgeons and five nurses during Tuesday's operation, fulfilled his prediction that he would "get two good live babies" as a result.

The twins, Patricia and Prudence, are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lowe, San Francisco. Lowe, an accountant with the state Board of Education, and his wife also have a 6-year-old son and a 4-year-old daughter.

The twins, who were born April 11, were joined from the breast bone to the navel. They had a single umbilical cord and fused livers, but complete separate circulation systems, hearts and digestive tracts.

They were described as "very well formed, beautiful little Chinese girls."

A hospital bulletin said the girls "went to sleep nicely" at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday under care of two anesthesiologists and their two residents. The operation on one girl was completed at 2:15 p.m. and on the second at 2:30 p.m.

The bulletin said "the extensive skin, chest and abdominal wall communications were separated, as well as that of the fused livers." After separation the girls were moved to individual operating tables where the abdominal and chest walls were closed.

"Because of the extensive joining, it was necessary to close the chest and abdominal walls with a plastic mesh which was in turn covered by skin and fatty tissue," the hospital said.

"Each side of each twin was grafted with homogeneous dried skin provided by the U.S. Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Md. The use of the plastic, plus the skin, allowed for complete separation without interfering with the babies' breathing."

The skin graft will be repeated with the babies' own skin within three weeks.

Barring complications, the hospital said, "the prognosis is good. However, materials were used and procedures done for which there is not sufficient precedence to make an unguarded prognosis."

Hope Fades for Life of Boy Trapped in Mine

GHOST PINE CREEK, Alta. (UPI)—Hope faded today for the life of a boy trapped in an almost airless, abandoned coal mine shaft since Tuesday morning.

Kenny Kowalchuk, 4, fell through an 18-inch hole 40 feet into the six by eight-foot shaft when the earth suddenly gave way beneath him as he played with his brother, Johnny, 3, 100 yards from their farm home.

Rescue crews who spelled each other in an around-the-clock race to reach Kenny held out little hope for his survival. Search officials said it was possible he was buried by dirt or asphyxiated by coal gas fumes at the 40-foot level of the 85-foot shaft.

Conclusions. Teach early that those who have made the greatest success of life are the ones who quickly come up with an answer. Then the chart becomes most successful in any profession which requires handling big projects which need to be made practical.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to "you!"

London Hope For Revival On Exchange

LONDON (UPI)—Traders on London's stock exchange, reeling from their worst day since the war, hoped today the partial recovery on Wall Street would spur a similar revival here.

Whether "bargain hunters" like those who pepped up Tuesday's Wall Street trading would perform similar surgery in Europe was the big question.

Wall Street's "Black Monday" was replayed as "Gloomy Tuesday" in London and on other European stock exchanges. Paper prices fell by a total of $5.6 billion in London alone.

The Financial Times' ordinary share index fell 18 points to 261.30—a 6.5 per cent drop, more severe than the 5 per cent New York collapse and the worst in the 27 years of the index's history. Nothing comparable to it has been seen here since London's market fell 5.4 per cent after the Munich crisis of September, 1938.

The watchword today from press, pundits and exchange leaders was: "Keep calm and hope for the best."

Stock exchange chairman, Lord Ritchie, advised small investors to "put you heads down and let the wind blow over them."

"One must get this into perspective," the Financial Times said.

Most newspapers said flatly that the present situation, either here or in New York, bore no resemblance to the crash of 1929.

But European investors faced worries not affecting their Wall Street counterparts. These worries centered on the wave of strikes that have been plaguing governments in England, France, Austria and Spain and the end of the post-war boom in West Germany.

In Frankfurt, the German market hit its lowest point since 1948. Stock prices in Italy tumbled an average 3 per cent. The Brussels market suffered its worst beating since the war and the Amsterdam exchange reported huge cuts in some blue-chip issues.

In Paris, Figaro's Raymond Aron said that "if follies are not committed, the drops in prices will not be enough to set off a paralysis of activity."

The amount of wood used in the New York City subway system is estimated at almost 29.5 million board feet.

Adolph Eichmann Now Resigned to Hanging for Part in Slaughtering

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI)—Highly-placed sources said today that former Nazi SS officer Adolf Eichmann is resigned to hanging for his part in the wartime slaughter of Jews and will not seek a presidential reprieve.

Officials refused to confirm or deny the report.

Eichmann showed neither surprise nor distress Tuesday when Israel's Supreme Court unanimously rejected his appeal against a death sentence for directing the Nazi murder of six million Jews during World War II. The rejection meant that only a reprieve from President Itzhak Ben-Zvi could save Eichmann's life.

The sources said the 56-year-old German ordered his attorney, Dr. Robert Servatius, to drop the clemency petition the lawyer had prepared.

Servatius pleaded with his client after the Supreme Court ruling, the sources said, but Eichmann overruled him.

Surprise to Bob Hope on His Birthday

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Bob Hope celebrated his 59th birthday Tuesday at a surprise party on the set of his new movie during which costar Lucille Ball referred to the comedian as the "Richard Burton of Burbank."

Miss Ball and Hope traded jokes as studio chief Jack Warner and 300 friends and crew members delayed work on "Critic's Choice" to sing "Happy Birthday" to the veteran funny-man.

"I've been a fan of Bob's ever since my mother took me to his first picture," quipped Miss Ball.

Referring to the actress' red hair, Hope said, "I've known Lucy through five different shades of red."

"Where are you, Josephine?" Young visitor to the IBM pavilion at the Seattle World's Fair operates model of Napoleon's semaphore system, an early method of sending messages between distant points.

A fair navigator. Brian looks through a model sextant that permits operator to line up a star with the horizon. He can then determine "position," which it turns out is the World's Fair.

A World of Fun at the Fair

Children Can Operate Machines In Seattle

Operating model of an old music box helps Brian Brenner, 8, understand the principle of stored information in a computer's memory.

IT MAY BE difficult to compute the amount of enjoyment for youngsters visiting the IBM pavilion at the Seattle World's Fair, but as these pictures show, it does add up to a world of fun.

The exhibit features models of significant inventions such as the telescope, helicopter blade, clock, and sextant. An intriguing "do-nothing" machine that creates a great deal of movement without purpose was constructed just to demonstrate the varieties of motion produced by the interaction of gears and wheels. A favorite attraction in the exhibit is the "children's maze," which roughly simulates the operation of a computer. Children enter the maze to solve a problem. The problem is how to get out; they must choose numbers in correct order. The theme of the exhibit is "New Paths to Knowledge."

Anne Simpson, 7, is not quite sure just what is going to happen as she turns crank on the "do-nothing" machine. It merely demonstrates varieties of motion produced with gears and wheels.

Diane Richards, 4, ponders move in the Children's Maze.

Her mind made up, Diane strikes out for freedom. Parents watch from above.

In a reflective mood, Diane considers the mirrored figures.

Lady Wanless Still Keeps Busy at 88

By EILEEN IRISH

Lady Lillian Emery Wanless, widow of Sir William James Wanless, K.B., K.I.H., M.D., F.A.C.S., an internationally known surgeon and distinguished Christian philanthropist, visited Palm Springs for the first time over 30 years ago when Sir William had been invited to address a meeting at the Desert Inn, where they were the guests of founder Nellie Coffman.

At that time she and her husband had just returned to the United States after spending 25 years together as missionaries in India, where the doctor had founded and supervised the building of a general hospital, six branch hospitals, a convalescent home, a medical college, a training school for nurses, a leprosyarium and a tuberculosis sanatorium.

Husband Knighted

The year before he had been knighted by King George V for his great service to the people of India; the people of Miraj, a rural area about 300 miles southeast of Bombay, had named the town where he established the tuberculosis sanatorium, "Wanlesswadi" after him, and the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions had declared his work in India "the greatest by any one man in the history of medical missions."

Lady Lillian revisited Palm Springs, spending a week at the Sun and Stars Hotel. At the age of 88, she looks and acts more like 65, she enthusiastically tells of the many activities and events that have transpired in the years since her first visit here in the desert, which reminded her then of India.

Children Prominent

Sir William passed away in 1933. The three children, two boys and a girl completed their respective educations and one son Dr. Harold followed the footsteps of his father becoming an M. D., specialized in Urology and is now practicing in Fullerton, Calif; the other son, Emery, has been a pilot since 1938 with Pan American World Airways, lives in San Mateo and now flies the Pacific routes out of San Francisco.

Emery was the pilot who flew Gov. Rockefeller to New Guinea recently when he went there to help in the search for his lost son; the daughter, Margaret is the mother of two children and busy wife of Dr. Arthur N. Strahler, P.H.D., professor of Geology at Columbia University, who has written a text book on that subject that is now used in approximately 100 colleges and universities today.

Supports Missions

However, Lady Lillian has not spent these past years only in admiration and concern for her children. She is still very active in furthering the work of medical missions by speaking, writing and lecturing to various groups about her experiences in India, and has written a book that was published in 1944 "Wanless of India, Lan- cet of the Lord," based on facts which dramatizes the life of her husband, which she hopes will be an inspiration to the youth of today.

This pert and young-at-heart lady lives alone now and still maintains her home in Glendale. She drove her own car until the past few years, is hale and hearty and travels some place every year, usually to visit one of her children or many friends throughout the United States. She is now writing her memoirs, which she thinks might be of interest, at least, to her six grandchildren.

LADY LILLIAN E. Wanless, right, found a very interested listener in Mrs. Myron Persons, who is missionary chairman this year at Palm Springs Community Church and landlady at Sun and Stars Hotel where Lady Wanless is staying on this visit to Palm Springs—the first in over 30 years. The magazine is the current issue of Presbyterian Life and carries a story of the medical work still being carried on in Wanlesswadi, India.

Fresh Water Problem Outweighs Space

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy said here that for developing countries with water problems, he said.

Kennedy said that while conservation efforts of the past have dealt with stopping depletion of resources the major task now is to "harness science to conservation." For example, he said, projects to get more food from the oceans open up huge possibilities of feeding the world's hungry.

The President said the United States must also move faster on more conventional conservation such as wilderness projects to "preserve for those who come after us this beautiful country that we have inherited."

Dueling Regaining Popularity With German University Students

By MARLYN AYCOCK

HEIDELBERG, Germany (UPI)

—That inch-long scar high on the cheekbone, a mark of honor half a century ago, is beginning to appear again on university students in Germany.

This time, however, it's the result of fencing for sport rather than cold-blooded dueling among aristocratic young Germans.

For generations the scar was the sign that students could at last be called men, that they had undergone their baptism by cold steel, defending a rigid code of honor.

Student hangouts at such famous university towns as Heidelberg, Marburg, Goettingen and Leipzig still boast numerous photographs of students winning their badge.

The practice gained most notice in the United States through Sigmund Romberg's "Student Prince," romantic operetta about the ill-fated love of a young prince for a comely serving wench.

Bans Sport

Dueling suffered one of its early banishments during the pre-war years. Hitler, fearing competition from any organization he didn't sponsor, banned not only dueling but the Corps, or fraternities, whose members made it popular. Dueling still was forbidden after World War II. Indeed, possession of any weapons by Germans was illegal.

In 1953, the Federal Supreme Court ruled that the scholarly pursuit of "Mensur," fencing for sport rather than blood, was neither unlawful nor immoral.

With the return of prosperity to Germany came high enrollments at the universities. The Corps also began a comeback.

The high-spirited young men returned to some of their old traditions, including "Mensur," the present substitute for dueling.

The opponents seldom wear face masks, thus creating opportunities to earn the revered scar on the cheek. Slight scratches often are "treated" in such a manner to insure that a livid mark remains.

Heidelberg University officials admit corpsmen still square off with foils but one said "it is very little and nothing like in the days of yore."

Pennies more...but worth it!

1,000 Palms Chamber Will Install

THOUSAND PALMS — Plans have been completed for the annual Chamber of Commerce dinner and installation of officers June 2, according to Mrs. June Wallace, dinner committee chairman.

Mrs. Wallace said the program was set during a meeting conducted at the home of Mrs. Phoebe Cornelius, whose committee includes Meses. E. Mangold, M. Bausman, E. Sautter, J. Smart, E. Warnstedt, Cleone Miller and Misses Helen and Grace Hyde.

Thursday, May 24, the Board of Trustees of the Unified School District will meet with representatives from Thousand Palms. A discussion of an elementary school is on the agenda for the evening.

Miss Marie Geckle of Monterey Park was hostess to Mrs. Lillian Palace of Eagle Rock and Mrs. Yvette Mayou of Pasadena at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Geckle on Los Flores Way. They are all employees in the County Building at Los Angeles, and were amazed at the terrific winds of Sunday, but were delighted with the sunshine on Saturday.

Marie has just returned from a three week vacation trip. She and a friend drove to San Francisco, Seattle and the Fair, and back by way of Reno and Lake Tahoe.

Science Courses Up

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—High school students are replacing the dread of science courses with an awareness of their importance and science course enrollments are up, according to Dr. Stanley E. Williamson, president-elect of the National Science Teachers Association. Williamson, head of the Department of Science Education at Oregon State University, said that while interest in general is improving girls are still unnecessarily gun shy of science courses.

PALM CITY

Friends From Florida Visit Garvin Family

By HELEN E. WOOLACOTT

PALM CITY — Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Mundy, 77220 Michigan Drive, were Mrs. Jack Clagston of Palm Springs and Mrs. George Baesman and their two children of Altadena, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Garvin, 77510 California Drive, had as their guest this week, Mrs. Julie Brown of Orlando, Florida. Thirty-five years ago, The Garvin and Brown families were next door neighbors in Chester, Neb.

Correction: An error was made in the report of Mrs. Ed Garvin's years, in regard to the presentation of the Corages for the eldest Mother present at the United Church of Palm City Mother's Day program. Although Mrs. Garvin was correctly the "runner-up" as second to the eldest, her age is 82—not 87.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Britten and Mrs. Eva D. West, Mrs. Britten's mother, of 42345 Warner Trail enjoyed Mother's Day at dinner with her son and his family, the Larry J. Brittons of Yucaipa, Calif. Another son, Phillip Britten of Fort Falls was also present. Due to a severe rainstorm at Yucaipa, their visit was continued until the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Mundy, 77220 Michigan Drive, entertained their guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Bleich and their children, Linda and Bill, of San Bernardino.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jennings, 77320 California Drive, were favored with a visit from their grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Wells and their children, Sharon and Tommy. Also, Mrs. Jennings' sister, Mrs. Sterling E. Baugh and Mr. Baugh from Van Nuys have arrived and are anticipating the celebration of Mr. Frank Jennings' birthday, Saturday, May 26th, with other additional guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swanson, 77325 Missouri, are leaving Thursday for Los Angeles and will be gone until the weekend. They are in the process of selling their catering business in lieu of their permanent residency in Palm City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hill of Wisconsin Street, together with Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Cift of Costa Mesa, are leaving shortly for a trip to Monument National Park. They deny of General Practice.

are planning trips via Jeep into the deeper park areas, to learn more regarding this interesting territory. They are planning to be away some ten days or so.

Miss Eva G. Hodgins 77200 Michigan, enjoyed the visitation of her Chaplain brother, Dr. Hubert W. Hodgins from the Veteran's Administration Facility of West Los Angeles. He arrived this past Friday and returned to the Facility Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Britten, 42345 Warner Trail have been entertaining a past school-mate of the Brittons' Mrs. Loren J. Timmons and Mr. Timmons from Oklahoma City. Mr. Timmons is Divisional Manager of the Phillips Petroleum of Oklahoma City. While here, Mr. Timmons played golf daily and was delighted with the Palm City course; furthermore, both Mr. and Mrs. Timmons were highly impressed with the future prospects and advantages of Palm City.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jacobs, 42425 Iowa St., guested Mr. and Mrs. Clarence and May Richardson of Torrance, Calif.

Col. William and Mrs. Fangerow, 77185 Michigan, have as their week's guest, Col. Fangerow's sister, Mrs. Margaret Madgson from San Francisco. Several social events are being planned in Mrs. Madgson's honor.

Hay Fever Season Told By Weather

NEW YORK (UPI) — Certain weather factors are good predictors of how bad the annual hay fever season will be, report investigators from the University of Michigan.

The researchers, headed by James B. Harrington Jr., of the department of engineering mechanics, reached the conclusion after studying weather and pollen counts for the last 16 years.

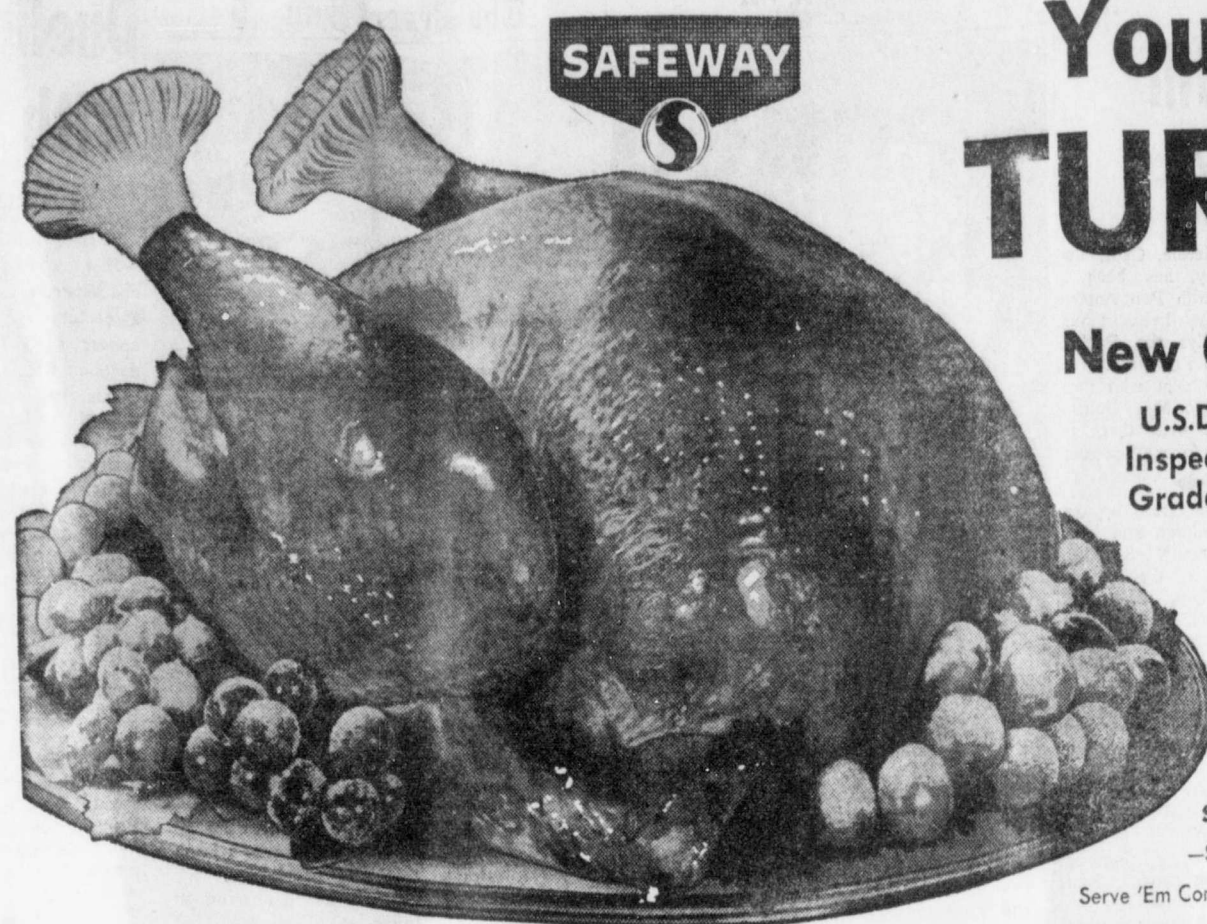

A warm, rainy May and relatively dry June tend to increase seasonal concentration of pollen, the team reported in "GP," the journal of the American Academy of Allergy.

PALM DESERT

Women's Group to L.A. For Rotary Convention

PALM DESERT—Preparing to join in the education and fun of the Rotary International convention to be held in Los Angeles the first part of June are the Mmes. and Mmes. Hal Kapp, Ted Smith, Baldwin W. Baker, O. A. Torgerson, C. M. Kincaide Jr., Jack Gilliespie, Roy McCall, Cliff Henderson and R. B. Kite among many going in from the desert. Roy St. Leon, Phil Franklin, Carl Jensen, Dick Kite Jr., and Gay Webster also plan to attend.

The Ladies Society of Sacred Heart Church met for a benefit luncheon at the beautiful home of Mrs. Robert Allen overlooking the golf course at Palm City. Proceeds are to be used for objects within the church, and will be added to funds raised at the successful rummage sale held at the Fair Grounds. This is the last social event for the season. There are about 40 members in this active group.

Michigan friends residing in the desert will be sorry to learn of the death of Harold H. Emmons, graduate of the University of Michigan, attorney, manufacturer, former police commissioner, and first president of Northwest Airways, Inc. For his war effort in World War I, (as a Naval Reservist he served as Commander of the Aircraft Production Board with the internationally famous Liberty engine under his jurisdiction, and later transferred to the Army as a Lt. Colonel in the Army Specialist Reserve Corps), Emmons was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal and Order of the Cross of Roumania.

Clara Spannagel continues to amaze people with her calm efficiency. To most individuals one party a day requires organization and stamina. Clara thinks nothing of tossing two. A delightful luncheon meeting and installment party (there were cute and appropriate gifts for everyone) for the Palm Springs Chapter of American Penwomen preceded an elaborate tea for Clara's Red Cross workers, with Merit Awards being given to hard working individuals. Some of the guests were fortunate to be qualified for both parties. May seems to be the month for birthday celebrations in Palm Desert. This month is partly under the sign of Taurus the Bull and partly under Gemini, but it is also a month of May Days, flowers blooming, and warm crisp nights under a tropical moon. BB Bech-off was a young 84 on the 17th, (her mothers birthday had been on the 16th, grandmothers on the 15th, and great grandmothers on the 14th, who said it was a good thing there weren't any more).

BB celebrated with luncheon at the Trinidad and in the evening cocktails and dinner at the R.H. Hanson home in Silver Spur. Then there was Robert Morrey (as well as Edith) whose birthday is celebrated annually at the Schwilck home, and Mercedes two nephews, Vick and Jim Marovich, both May-day celebrants. Among others are Evelyn Siemen, Betty Campbell, Robert Coates, Earlene Schlidge, Dolly Olesen, Al Merryman, Edith Clark, John Moon and Rhinold Hanson. Happy Birthday!

U.S. Okays $5,000 For 'Pet Rest'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Interior Department is willing to spend $5,000 to shelter tourists' pets at Hoover Dam, but it balks at the idea of putting up $20,000 to provide air-conditioned comfort for them.

This conflicts with the wishes of the Boulder City, Nev., chapter of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The local SPCA wants a special, air-conditioned shelter where dogs, cats, birds, and other pets can be kept while their owners tour the nation's biggest dam. Air-conditioning would boost the price of the "pet rest" to about $30,000.

During summer months, the temperature at Hoover Dam and the parking areas there often rises to 100 degrees Fahrenheit or more. Since it is not feasible to take the pets to the dam, owners leave them in locked automobiles. Some pets have died from heat prostration.

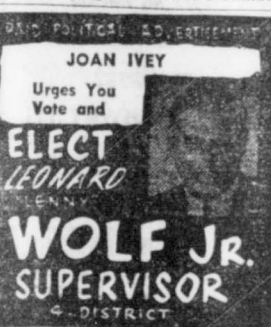

As a result, the SPCA asked the Interior Department to provide an adequate shelter for the pets. It also asked Sen. Alan Bible, D-Nev., to lend his influence to the projects.

Bible was agreeable. Hoover Dam attracts about three million visitors a year to his state. Bible was said to feel that if Hoover Dam is advertised as a tourist attraction, shelter should be provided for tourists' pets. He did not advocate an air-conditioned shelter, however.

The Interior Department also was agreeable. It issued a policy statement saying "there is no legal objection to expenditure of funds for this purpose providing it is administratively determined to be in the best interest of the government to do so."

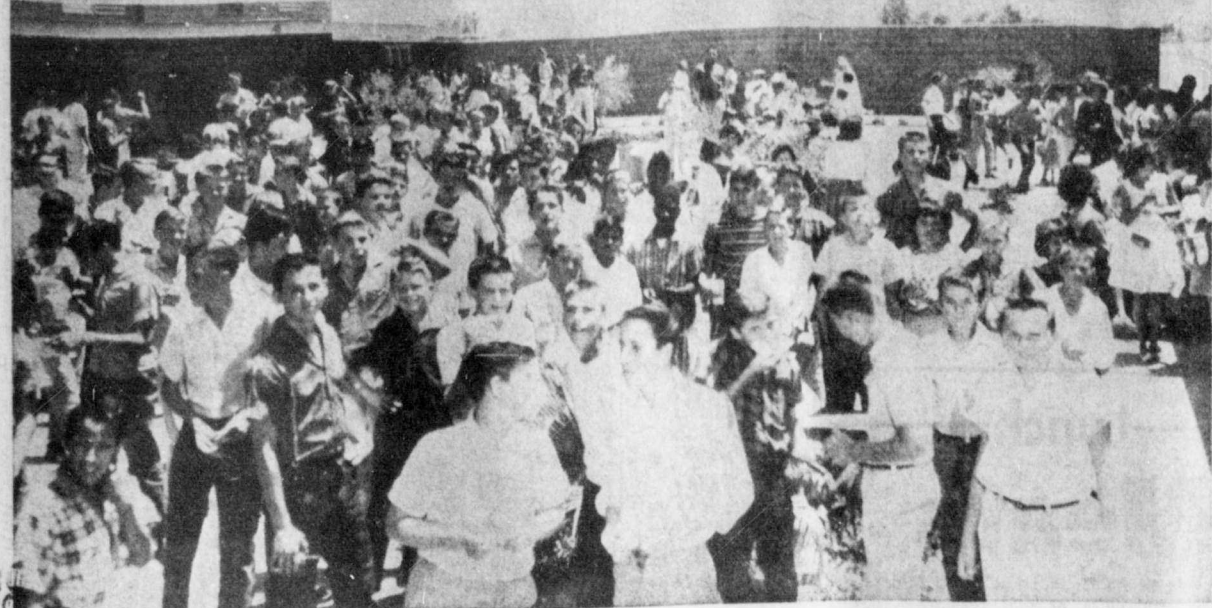

The department told Bible that "we are advising the Bureau of Reclamation to include construction of pet rests in its program." The bureau built and operates Hoover Dam. The policy statement obligated the bureau to do something.

The bureau drew up plans for a $5,000 shelter. The plans did not call for air-conditioning. The SPCA complained, but the bureau balked at going any further.

Dick Nixon Proposes Reforms

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Richard M. Nixon today proposed a five-point program of welfare reform which he said would overcome Gov. Edmund G. Brown's "loose administration, excessive red tape and unproductive cost increases."

"We must take immediate action to eliminate these roadblocks that obscure the laudable aims of our welfare programs," Nixon said.

In a speech prepared for delivery over two radio stations, Nixon cited five factors which he said had developed during Brown's administration. They were:

—Costs have skyrocketed more than 27 per cent in the last two years compared to a population increase of 7.5 per cent.

—"Laxity and red tape have caused two national magazines to single out California's aid to needy children and unemployment insurance programs as grim examples of sloppiness and self-defeating administration."

—"Brown's administration has allowed unscrupulous individuals to take advantage of the humanitarian aims of the welfare programs."

—"Brown's state Board of Social Welfare has contributed to the breaking up of homes by ruling that the reason for the absence of the father is immaterial in aid to needy children cases."

—"Brown's answer to these problems is more staff at county expense."

The Republican gubernatorial candidate then listed five-points which he said "will assure that our tax dollars are spent in the most constructive and waste-free manner."

—Replace the segmented and costly approach to social welfare problems with inter-departmental coordination.

—Clear away the underbrush of regulations to enable caseworkers and administrators to concentrate on families needing assistance.

—Greater local control and local autonomy to meet local conditions.

—Restore the concept of personal responsibility by helping people to help themselves.

Benefit to Chest Gave Pleasure

By MRS. MIMI RUDOLPH
An afternoon of theatre and music for the benefit of the Community Chest, was enjoyed by a large audience at Desert Museum last Sunday with Edith and Alan Kopelson and Albert Dominguez as the performing artists.

Dominguez, who is a Coachella Valley resident, is already a pianist of artist caliber at the age of 18, completely absorbed in his art with superb skill and sense of musical styles.

Opening with Les Adieux sonata by Beethoven, he used dynamics with the vibrancy of youth showing a sense of detail together with a strong overall outline which, as he matures in age and performance, will encompass the depth of thought and powerful grandeur so necessary for Beethoven.

A clean crisp technique in his group of Chopin Etudes evidenced a total emotional rapport and understanding of this basic hallmark of the piano repertoire. Closing with Debussy's "Images", Dominguez artfully captured the moods of shifting shimmering, sensitivity and tonal nuance of this musical impressionist. Clearly, Dominguez career is one of very great promise.

Edith Kopelson, presented two groups of dramatic readings, assisted by Alan Kopelson, pianist. Among her selections were Milay's sonnet "God's World," charmingly done, and the moral tale "The Nightingale and the Rose."

Edith Kopelson, presented two groups of dramatic readings, assisted by Alan Kopelson, pianist. Among her selections were Milay's sonnet "God's World," charmingly done, and the moral tale "The Nightingale and the Rose."

Baby Deaths 'Accidental'

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (UPI)—

The salt poisoning deaths of six babies at Binghamton General Hospital in March have been ruled accidental and there will be no prosecution, Broome County Dist. Atty. Stephen Smyk said.

Smyk announced there would be "no criminal prosecution" shortly after he received word of a verdict of accidental death in each case by Dr. Vincent Maddi, Broome County coroner.

Both Smyk and Maddi said a joint investigation, along with an investigation by local police and hospital officials, had not produced sufficient evidence to warrant criminal action.

The six babies died after salt wouldn't this be the perfect method for sugar in the milk formulas.

Your writer wishes it might be possible to find patrons in our village who would sponsor a monthly Sunday afternoon concert in our superb museum? In museums across our country many young hopefuls artists have begun their careers in this manner — they are literally crying for such an opportunity, and with the great need here for more culture — wouldn't this be the perfect method for sugar in the milk formulas.

Proposition No. 2 Seems Unnecessary

It seems a bit incongruous on Memorial Day to urge, on the one hand, respect and commemoration for our veterans and on the other, recommend a No vote on Proposition 2, veteran's housing aid proposal.

Yet, The Desert Sun recommends a No vote on 2 because we believe that the proposition seeks to perpetuate a measure which, however worthy in the past, has outlived its usefulness.

Proposition 2, if enacted, would provide an additional $250 million to be available as assistance as loans to veterans for the purchase of farms and homes. While this money would be a general obligation of the State, in practice in the past, redemptions and interest payments by the veterans have been so favorable that no State general fund money has been needed to service the bonds.

This program, in lieu of a California veteran's bonus, has been in effect since 1921.

In these years of its operation it has grown until there is now on the books $1,324,000,000 of loans outstanding—a billion and a third dollars—so far self supporting.

However, as is natural, the pace of applications for this aid has slowed year by year so that it is more than possible that future needs can be met from present debt retirement. In addition, there is presently in the fund $160 million available for loans. That would seem to be enough for the foreseeable future.

The danger and deterrent here is that every bond sold by the State adds to the total debt load and drives upward the interest rates. That's money out of the pockets of the taxpayers and when it seems to be not needed we should hold the line.

So, with all due respect and homage to our veterans, we recommend a No vote on Proposition 2.

Remember Our American Heritage

(Sam D. Hinkle, Exalted Ruler of Palm Springs Lodge, 1905, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, submitted this Memorial Day message to the 800 members of the Lodge, urging them to "Remember Our American Heritage." It is a message that should be read and given thought by everyone and The Desert Sun prints it below)

On this Memorial Day, one should recall the prolonged crisis that preceded the birth of our Nation.

Today our greatest need is to understand the fundamental truths offered by our heritage.

Our American strength and dynamic progress lies in preserving these truths.

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks urge you to spend a portion of today reviewing the essential documents of our national heritage.

- * The Declaration of Independence
- * The Constitution
- * The Bill of Rights
- * Lincoln's Gettysburg Address
- * The Star Spangled Banner

For Dads and Mothers at the dinner table today: Take the opportunity to tell your children . . . in your own words . . . a story about the Declaration of Independence . . . the Constitution . . . Lincoln's Gettysburg Address . . .

Elks ask you to remember that . . . AN INFORMED FAMILY BUILDS A STRONG AMERICA.

Display your American Flag Today.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

The Dynamic Right Raises Problems

WASHINGTON, D. C.—General Walker was an incident. The John Birch Society is a phase. Over and above such ephemeral outcroppings, there is in America a dynamic Right Wing which is for God and America, for the ideals of "duty, honor, and country" which General MacArthur so magnificently invoked in his farewell address about a week ago at West Point.

There are two schools within this dynamic Right Wing. One is the conspiratorial school where the schoolmen believe that the nation is being betrayed by internal enemies who collaborate for our overthrow with external foes.

The clatter often raised in the name of this conspiratorial school comes from the collision of two good American maxims. One is the proverb that the price of liberty is eternal vigilance. The other is the Constitutional principle that a man is innocent until guilty.

But in order not to have the collision and the clatter we would have to rescind one or both of these American stand-by beliefs. Does any loyal American wish us to cease being vigilant for our liberties? Does any reasonable citizen wish to change the assumption of innocence which is the citizen's best protection from hysterical or tyrannical actions against his person and freedom?

Walking Into Trouble

Well, President Kennedy may not know it but he is walking into trouble again with the conspiratorial school. I recently sat in on a very intellectual club of Radical Rightists who envisioned terrible things taking place. The President, it was envisioned, had broken with Adenauer, broken with De Gaulle, but was buddying up with Khrushchev to work out a Troika plan for Laos. Some Protestant church missions, withholding food from Nationalist China, were preparing to join the Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) in sending surplus grain to Red China.

And so on. It would be easier to dismiss such vigilance as neurotic nonsense if the record did not hold such names as Alger Hiss, the Rosenbergs and many other internalists who perpetrated incredible crimes against this country. No matter if the conspiratorial school sometimes oversteps the bounds, it is here for the duration of the world struggle with Communism. It is a cornerstone of American security.

Classical Conservatism

The other school of the dynamic Right is classical conservatism. This group, headed by Barry Goldwater Republicans and Southern Democrats in the persons of Harry Byrd, Richard Russell, Herman Talmadge, Strom Thurmond and John McClellan, is just as hostile, just as suspicious, although never as insulting, regarding President Kennedy as the conspiratorial schoolman. Time after time since John Kennedy's nomination in 1960 and with the increase of his urbane demagoguery, these classicists have challenged and defeated him. Senator Byrd withheld Virginia from the Democratic ticket in 1960, and today is girding for a decisive battle against the wrong-headed phases of the President's tax bill. Senator Russell routed the President and Attorney General on the Constitutional phase of the Literary Test bill. Senator McClellan is digging without fear or favor into the Billie Sol Estes case, which has already yielded evidence that the Frontiersmen are sometimes robbers of the Federal gravy train.

I have thought it timely to summarize the Right Wing front against the Kennedy Administration because, while the Right has suffered frustrations and embarrassments in recent months and does not seem in the best of shape for the 1962 elections, the Administration is also experiencing setbacks in Europe, Asia and Congress—and the cause for American supremacy and freedom is neither won nor lost.

THIS SIDE Of The Sun

R. F. "Phat" GRAETTINGER

A holiday? Sure,
But not all for pleasure,
A day to recall
Some mem'ries we treasure.

To hundreds who weren't on the job today because it is a legal holiday — Memorial Day — it wasn't just a day to defy traffic, to picnic, play golf or just laze around.

It was a day of memories. To all of us, it should have been a day to pause and check up on how we're doing to perpetuate the ideals for which the men, whose memories we honored today, died.

It might be a shock to some.

SWITCHING THE TREND of thought, there was that man who shouted "good morning" over his shoulder as he trotted to his parked auto.

"In a hurry," he added. "My wife's leaving Chicago in an hour or so and I've got to get to Ingelwood to meet her at the airport."

Then despite his rush, he stopped.

"Here's something you can use," he said.

"WE'VE GOT INSTANT coffee, instant tea, instant money with all of those cards, and now we've got instant travel."

"You get on a jet plane in Chicago and before you can settle down, you're in Los Angeles."

"Helen's probably not even at O'Hara yet but she'll be at International Airport before I am if I don't stop letting you hold me up."

"Then I'll catch you-know-what—Bye."

IT WON'T BE LONG now before the postman's burden will be considerably lighter. The primary election campaign comes to an end in five days.

But for the last two months, the mailman has been loaded. With mail, I mean. Publicists for the various candidates have been earning their money. Every day one vehement argument for the many seeking public office and on a lot of days two, and even three, letters from the same one.

HERE AT THE OFFICE, we have to open all of them. You can never tell when there might be a germ of a news story in the envelope.

It's aggravating, though, when there's a red stamp on two or three of them. "Postage due, 4c."

Came one from Pat Brown's p.r. bureau the other day. It had enough stamps, all right, but the envelope was plastered with other post office markings.

IT WAS ADDRESSED simply "The Desert Sun, 174 North Palm Canyon Drive, Riverside County, Calif." But we got it. All over the envelope were scribbled notations.

"Try Palm Springs" Then just "Palm Springs" followed by "Box 190" and a neat printed sign: "Advise your correspondent of your correct address."

Why should we? It's their deal. But, anyway, the fellow in the Hollywood post office knew where The Sun was located and we got the propaganda.

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN:

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: How can a mother teacher her son obedience and respect for his elders? When I tell him to pick up his clothes or straighten out his bureau drawers, he sticks out his tongue and makes faces at me. Then he runs to his father for protection. I am tired of his acting up. I certainly have tried my best to raise him right, but I don't know where I got off the track. He is no child, Abby. He is 28 years old. What can be done? —FED UP

DEAR FED: Either this son of yours is teasing you, in which case you should ignore it—or he has the mentality of a six-year-old, in which case he needs a psychiatrist and all the help he can get.

DEAR ABBY: I have never been married, but I have nine children running from 10 months old up to 16 years old. The children are living with my mother and my aunt, but the Welfare is supporting them. I am not in love with their Daddy any more, but he hangs around my mother's house and also my aunt's house to be where the children are. He told the Welfare people that he

Remember When

May 30, 1952

The Rev. William Blondin, St. Paul's in the Desert, Episcopal, Father W. G. Goodrow, Our Lady of Solitude, Catholic, and Rabbi Arthur Lebowitz, Temple Isaiah, were the speakers as Palm Springs honored its soldier dead at ceremonies at the cemetery.

Desert area residents petitioned county supervisors to delay action on building a new county hospital until they studied possibility of a branch hospital on the desert.

Earl Coffman, returning from a National Hotel Association meeting in Quebec, said all signs indicate prosperity is here to stay — for a while at least, he added.

May 30, 1942

William Gaede, U.S. army engineer, asked city council to close a portion of Tachevah Road adjacent to the new army hospital at El Mirador.

Buster Cruncheon received his wings as a U.S. airman, friends here were informed.

John R. E. Chaffey, secretary of the newly formed recreation committee, said several plans for entertainment of servicemen stationed on the desert, were under consideration.

May 30, 1932

A monkey on the loose was reported stealing cherries from Palm Canyon visitors and a posse was organized at the Palm Springs Drug Store to capture him. Armed with sacks of peanuts and a lasso, the posse scoured the canyon without success. It was reported later that the monkey's owner had turned up and recaptured him.

It was cool in Palm Springs and The Desert Sun bragged that it "had not erred in five years of predicting a warm April and cooler May and June."

BOB CONSIDINE:

An Alcoholic Tells Story of His Rebirth

NEW YORK—This is the story of a modern resurrection, the rebirth of an alcoholic. His name doesn't matter here, but his story does. Let him tell it:

"I started drinking when I was 16 in the third year of high school. From what I've learned recently from members of Alcoholics Anonymous I was even then a potential alcoholic. Duty overseas with the army, after World War II, was no different than a Roman orgy, but I received an honorable discharge and in 1949 was married to the wonderful girl who is the mother of my three children.

"I couldn't find work in New York so I went to sea with the Merchant Marine, drunk most of the time. Then a job with the city opened and things were all right for a while, but once again I hit the bottle. I spent everything I earned—everything—in bars. I let my wife run up grocery bills all over the place, clothing bills, all the other necessities, then in a drunken way figured I could pay for them by borrowing from banks, loan sharks, anybody.

"I took a leave, went to sea again and wound up in a Puerto Rican gutter. The veterans hospital had me for seven weeks, and my wife never missed visiting me even one day. The union took care of her and the kids. I came out of the hospital determined to make something of myself, and went directly to the nearest bar. In time I was dismissed, my wife and kids left me. I lost the apartment, and I hit the street.

To Drunk to Remember

"Then three trips to sea, so drunk, I don't remember now where I went, 14 trips to Bellevue Hospital, two trips to a state hospital, Bowery missions, religious homes, doorways, hallways anywhere I would fall in my drunken stupor. Cheap wine was good enough to send me, now, I was scared and alone and I thought I was in that condition because nobody gave a damn about me and hoped I would die.

"One day in June, 1960, I was lying just off the East River Drive after drinking wood alloy. I was waiting to die. I still don't know how it happened, but just then I remembered a place I had heard about in the Bronx — the Talbot Center. I even remembered the address, somehow, and miraculously got there. I must have been the filthiest person in New York, but they made me feel at home—and that was something I hadn't felt for a long time.

"The next day they took me to Mt. Carmel Guild in Paterson, N. J., where Monsignor Wall works with alcoholics no matter how high or low. There I found new hope, a new lease on life. I made a trip around the world on a freighter, didn't take a drink—six months of sobriety, plus a lot of time spent with A.A. literature given to me at Talbot Center. I came home with $1,500 and so proud of myself I figured there would be no harm in having a couple of beers before presenting myself to my wife and the children.

Out for Three Days

"I blacked out for three days, woke up freezing at 5 a.m. in a hallway. I had spent or lost or been rolled for $400. Now, it had been the unanimous verdict of everyone I knew that I was an alcoholic. But only at this low point did I get around to admitting it. I got a flop for a day, to get the reek of it out of me, then called on my mother-in-law, gave her the rest of the money, and went on to Talbot.

"My wife was not ready to take me back, so I went back to sea, breathing fresh air and A.A., and sent her whatever I earned. I felt liberated, freed of a terrible enemy.

"Back in New York, I made an astonishing discovery. I called a man I had once worked for, and let down, expecting him to hang up on me. I was shocked to hear him invite me to his office. He got me a good job, and I am back with my family — and the bills my drinking was responsible for have been paid.

"I have come back from hell and rejoined the human race. I now spend every spare hour I can find at the Talbot Center, looking for that one man in 100 who lies in a street, tearing his heart to pieces, wanting to come back but despairing that there is a way to return. I thank God for showing me the way to the center that day. Through it, I gained, through sobriety, the greatest thing any man could have — the respect of his wife, his children, his friends."

Letters to the Editor . . .

Editor
The Desert Sun
Dear Sir:

During my active career, I was a concert artist with an international reputation. The propagation of music is still my avocation.

Palm Springs, because of its beneficial climate, attracted me enough to leave my home in Eastern Canada for the past three winters. My enthusiasm for this place is so great that my letters to friends across Canada have resulted in more than fifty new winter residents coming here.

The early pioneers of Palm Springs would be amazed at the growth of this place, and so will we in another ten years, marvel at its progress. For this, we must thank men of vision, daring and finance.

But building a city of stone and plaster and steel is not enough. There must be a comparative growth of cultural enterprises, as these are the flesh and blood and soul of any city. Its structured growth is only a skeleton of bones without the breath of life or spirit. There is never any monetary profit in advancing the arts, only a great spiritual bank-account.

Palm Springs, has through its chamber of commerce, created every kind of recreational facility to attract the tourist, and has a paid director of this enterprise. Why not have a Cultural Director of the Arts? Since my arrival here, I have met so many capable musicians who were formerly professionals, as well as retired bankers, doctors and big businessmen. We have one of the world's greatest dramatic directors here ready to answer the call.

Visiting performers are necessary, of course. But organizing the local and winter talents, giving them a formal meeting place and opportunity to express themselves is an imperative duty of the civic governing body. During the past season, I have had three different groups of string, vocal and piano music, which met regularly in different homes. What a void it filled in the lives of these people, and what pleasures it brought them.

To all of us, and to many others, a high point was reached one Saturday evening at the lovely and intimate auditorium of the Desert Museum. The event was a concert by our own local violin virtuoso, Albert Vertchamp accompanied at the piano by Jascha Heifetz's accompanist, Emmanuel Bay. sary, of course but organizing

An amazing feature of the program was the concerted and highly finished playing of three young boys aged 9-10, to whom Mr. Vertchamp has given unstintingly of his time and knowledge. These boys performed as seasoned young artists, compositions by the classic masters, Mozart and Vivaldi.

Some day the names of Michael and Barry Cook and Robert Mallette will carry the name of Palm Springs to distant lands.

Why should not the School Board arrange for these young boys to give their program before the children of the schools as an incentive and inspiration to them?

There is so much that could be done if . . .

Yours very truly,
MILTON BLACKSTONE

Desert Sun
Dear Sir,

As chairman of the local Jay-Cee "Seat Belt Clinic," I wish to extend my thanks and gratitude for the tremendous support from you and your staff on the Desert Sun.

It has given me a warm feeling to know that so much co-operation comes from the newspaper to lend a helping hand to our local chapter of Junior Chamber of Commerce. We try, and do many worthy projects during each year giving much of our free time, but it takes someone like you to let others know we are active and work to improve and help this community.

The JayCee Belt Clinic was one such project which could not have the success it had, had you not helped me put it across to your readers. We pray that the belts we installed are never needed to protect the occupant but if they are, through your help in bringing them to us, we may save lives.

Most Sincerely,
Kenneth D. Putzier

Hold Al Fresco Graduation

The beautiful school grounds formed the setting for the presentation of diplomas and annual awards at Palm Valley School.

Receiving their high school diplomas were Minnie Marx, Linda Bellamy, Sheila Hovey, Bill Kornell, Benton C. Beckley and Don Price.

Receiving their 8th grade diplomas were Maria Miller, Tammie Tippitt, Cynthia Grace Kirk, Tom Rawitzer, Jon Hamilton and George Berkey, Jr.

The invocation was given by Rev. Frederick A. Barnhill and the address of welcome by Cynthia Grace Kirk. Kenneth B. Kirk gave the address.

Jimmy Cooper presented Marcia Miller, eighth grader, and High School Graduate Benton C. Beckley the Lions Club Awards. Douglass Nance received the special seventh grade Map Award and all members of the seventh grade received recognition for their map work. There were three eighth grade Constitution Awards, first place going to Geep Berkey, with second place shared by Cynthia Grace Kirk and Jon Hamilton.

The two Ancient History Awards went to Christopher Mate and Ellen Lloyd. The ninth grade Literature Award was won by Kerry McCartney, while the Art Award went to Barbara Knapp. First place in the ninth grade Science Award went to Sunny Spicer and second place, to Guido von Raskap. First place in the Mrs. Charles E. Dant Progress Award was won by Benton Charles Beckley Jr. with second place going to Jon Hamilton.

Diplomas and awards were presented by Headmaster J. Blake

Confirmation Ceremony At The Temple

A reception and confirmation was held in Temple Isaiah Sunday for ten young confirmands of the Temple. An invocation was given by Rabbi Joseph Hurwitz who was so impressed with the Cantata "In Freedom's Light" that he asked the congregation to break tradition and applaud.

The cantata was a tone poem about the first Jewish emigrants to America directed by David Itkin and accompanied by Harry and Christine Tomlinson.

Bibles were awarded the class by Mrs. Jack Kosbie and Lew Levy, president of Temple Isaiah awarded certificates to Susan Forman, Andrea Hass, Timothy Linick, Ione Logan, Jay Miller, Sandra Nelson, Melvin Simrin, Alan Singer, Marsha Wener and Rebecca Zanville.

Miscellaneous Shower Fetes Young Bride

Spring colors of pink, green and yellow keyed the beautiful miscellaneous shower which was given by Mrs. Robert Marx and Mrs. Robert Alexander at the Alexander home on Ladera Circle. The shower honored Mrs. Harvey Haber of San Francisco, the former Kate McRobb, who was married in April to the son of Dr. and Mrs. Norman Haber of Palm Springs.

Pink, green and yellow bouquets in miniature watering cans in the same colors, were table decorations.

Bubbly pink champagne was used to toast the bride, before the luncheon of fruit and chicken salads and cottage cheese, which was topped by ice cream in tiny flower pots (pink, green and yellow, of course) each with a flower on top.

The afternoon was spent unwrapping stacks of gaily-wrapped packages that contained all the utilitarian things needed in a new household.

Musical Hi-Lites Aid Scholarship

"Musical Hi-Lites of 62" will be presented by Alex and Wynne Hammond, June 1, at 8 p.m. in the Mediterranean Room of the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel. Proceeds of the program will go to the Palm Springs Unified School District's Music Camp Scholarship Fund for Palm Springs High School students.

The "Musical Hi-Lites" will recall snatches of recent successful Palm Springs High School musical productions, including "The King and I", and the beautiful Christmas opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors", besides a delightful short curtain raiser entitled "Sunday Excursion," written by Alex Wilder.

These will be sung by Hammond students who performed in these productions — namely, Judy Jorgensen, Tommy Pickell, Bob Driskell, Kathy Shepard, Carol Paul, Gary Beebe, Nan Stephens, Michael Cosgrove, Noreen Slaughter, Jerry Sale, Dody Larson, Michelle Cosgrove, Jeff and Jennifer Mitchell, Rosemary Cosgrove, and Laurel Weissman.

No musical "hi-lite" of the season would be complete without including The Anderson Sisters, The Six Teens, and We Four Plus One, all of whom will be part of this exciting musical evening.

The Anderson Sisters, composed of Cindy (the littlest), Debbie and Gretchen, a young girl trio, have sung together for three years.

Crazy Hats And Mad Ties Are Suggested

All the women are asked to wear their craziest hats and the men their wildest ties, when they attend the White Donkey garden party, which is being sponsored by the Democratic ladies of the 38th Congressional District, Women's Division of the Democratic State Central Committee to be held on Sunday, June 3.

This social gala event is being hosted by Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hall on the grounds of their Riverside home at 5055 Central Avenue.

An auction and other entertainment is planned for the party, which is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Leann Nixon.

Reservations may be made locally with Mrs. Amy Croft.

They won honors in Starcades — were chosen as finalists, and have been "regulars" at El Mirador Sunday brunches for several years. Wynne Hammond will present the women's group of Coachella Valley, "The Musical Arts Chorale." Sponsored by the Woman's Club of Indio, this 20 voice group was formed two years ago of outstanding voices of the leading women in the valley. The group has sung numerous concerts. Working toward presenting a scholarship themselves to deserving music students, they consented to appear on the program to help make it a success.

"We Four Plus One," has been reaping accolades ever since they won the "Sweepstakes" award in Starcades. Among the trophies and awards they have won is a $100 bond which they are giving to the Musical Scholarship Fund. High praise was given to the quintette at their recent appearance on KTTV Television Talent Show. The quintette is composed of Carol Paul, David Kennedy, Bob Driskell, Tommy Pickell, and Gary Beebe.

The Six Teens are proteges of vocal music director of Palm Springs High School, Alex Hammond, and is composed of a group of teenage girls whose combined voices are a delight to hear. The girls have sung together for the three years they have attended Palm Springs High School. Members are: Cathy Givens, Judy Colette, Kathy Shepard, Lynn Hamerslag, Vicki Palmer and Carol Paul.

Contribution to the evening's entertainment is one dollar. Tickets may be procured from any of the music students, or may be purchased at the door.

Altar Guild Plans Covered Dish Supper

The Women's Altar Guild of the Christ Chapel of the Marine Corps Base at Twenty-nine Palms is planning a covered dish supper for Sunday, June 3. The affair will be held in the Protestant Chapel at 5:30 p.m., and will feature an evening of fellowship and entertainment.

Geraniums require plenty of sun and a cool location. Water only when soil dries out. Do not over fertilize.

Supplies of May Flowers Plentiful and Good Buys

Carnations, snapdragons, roses, peonies, daisies and most all other flowers are in plentiful supply in May and are considered "good buys", the Society of American Florists reports.

To prolong the life of these and other cut flowers, recut their stem ends diagonally with a sharp knife place the stem ends in a container of warm water remove all foliage (including the thorns of roses) below the water line, and add a commercial flower preservative to the water.

If stem ends get soft or decayed, recut the stems diagonally to remove that portion. Should any flowers look wilted, recut their stems and place them in very warm water.

SAF suggest that cut flower arrangements be kept away from draughts and direct sunshine. Resting them in a cool, dark place at night will refresh the flowers and prolong their beauty, SAF adds.

SOL BERNSTEIN, above, owner of Palm Springs' Model Plumbing Supply Co., has been named president of the Viking Sauna Corporation of Southern California. Bernstein has been master-minding the red-hot interest being evinced in the Viking Sauna, an adaptation of the traditional Finnish Sauna dry bath. The relaxing and health-giving dry heat comes from a thermostatically controlled all-electric heating-dehumidifying unit.

SUNAIR

Local Women Attend San Francisco Meet

SUNAIR — Mrs. Carl Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Breeding, accompanied by Mrs. Ed Donahue of Cathedral City and Mrs. John Dill of Palm Springs, drove to San Francisco for the weekend state convention of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority. Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Donahue are members of Chi Theta Chapter of which Mrs. Donahue is president, and Mrs. Dill is president of Desert Cities Council. They left San Francisco and stayed over on Pismo Beach before returning to the desert.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Stellar had as their houseguests their friends for many years, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Baker of Long Beach. The Bakers are the parents of Mrs. Barbara Hartley of Palm Desert.

Weekend guests at the Sunation Motel included Mr. and Mrs. E.N. Stoughton and daughters, Julie and Jodie, of Los Alamitos, Mr. and Mrs. B.F. Childs of Hacienda Heights and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Childs from Covina, Mr. and Mrs. James McVay, daughter, Sandra and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McVay, from Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Vicary from Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Shelton spent several days last week in North Hollywood and Los Angeles visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McDermott of Santa Cruz are spending this week at the Sunair Terrace Apartments and mid-week guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Osborn from Santa Fe, N.M.

At the Sunair Terrace for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Jorden from Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Owens of Baldwin Park, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Opel of Arcadia, Mr. and Mrs. Ely Underwood from Alhambra and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown from La Puente.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Gould had as their weekend houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Jack Greenberg of Altadena. The Goulds are planning another summer in San Diego.

Calls Off Search

TOKYO (UPI) — The Japanese Maritime Agency called off a search Monday for 16 Japanese seamen missing since their fishing vessel sank in a storm off the southern-most island of Kyushu.

The ship sank Sunday and wreckage was spotted Monday but no survivors were found, the agency said.

JOHN HATHAWAY

ROBERT HATHAWAY

Carrier Boy Spotlight Shared by Brothers

Robert and John Hathaway share the spotlight for newspaper-boy of the week.

Robert is an 11-year-old student at Cahulla school, in the fifth grade. John is in the eighth grade at Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School.

Both boys have hobbies, but they are as different as day and night. John likes to collect models, while Robert has a collection of match book covers.

Hobbies aren't the only things that differ with John and Robert. They both intend on going to college, but Robert would like to be a dentist, John an electrical engineer.

They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hathaway of 1424 Via Salida in Palm Springs, and have been delivering newspapers for the Desert Sun for one year.

John has route 98 which includes Twin Palms Drive, La Jolla Road, Marion Way, Anza Drive, Cameo Way, La Verne Circle, Shirley Circle, Aquanetta Drive, Aquanetta Circle, Navajo Drive, Apache Circle, Apache Road, Caliente Road, Yucca place, Ana Maria Place, Caliente Drive, Joshua Tree Place and Ocotillo Lodge.

Robert's route is the Sahara Trailer Park.

Fanatical Killers Faced In Jungles of Viet Nam

EDITOR'S NOTE—What type of enemy is pitted against South Vietnamese troops and their American military advisers? In the following interview a wounded American officer, the son of a famous general, gives an intimate glimpse of the jungle war against "disciplined, fanatical killers."

By NEIL SHEEHAN

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI)—Lt. Col. Frank B. Clay shifted gingerly in his chair, obviously still bothered by wounds caused by fragments of plexiglass and aluminum which ripped into his arm, leg and left side.

He found a more comfortable position and leaned back, a cool drink in his hand.

"They have the same spirit as the Crusaders and Saracens—all fired up for a cause," he said.

Clay, a 40-year-old West Pointer, spoke to this correspondent Thursday just 24 hours after he had been wounded.

And he spoke with respect of the elusive enemy he has spent 11 months searching out in the rice paddies, swamps and jungles of the Mekong River delta south of here.

Clay, son of President Kennedy's Berlin adviser, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, is senior adviser to the Vietnamese 7th Division which is responsible for the war against the Communist Viet Cong in five provinces south of Saigon.

He was wounded Wednesday when Viet Cong bullets shattered the cockpit of the helicopter in which he was flying.

Two weeks ago, during a similar operation against the guerrillas, Clay was nearly killed when a Communist bullet crashed through the plexiglass canopy of another helicopter within inches of his head.

During Wednesday's brisk action against the Communists, three other American officers riding in the same helicopter with Clay also were wounded.

Clay said he and another U. S. military adviser, Col. H. C. Blazard, jumped into action early Wednesday with a company of Vietnamese troops near the village of N. an Ninh in Kien Tuong Province, 50 miles south of Saigon.

Set Trap For Reds

Eight other companies of Vietnamese troops, including civil guards and rangers, had been airlifted around the edges of a wide area covered with flooded rice paddies, criss-crossed by canals, and obscured by fields of man high elephant grass.

Object of the operation, Clay said, was to encircle and trap elements of the Viet Cong 504th Battalion which had been terrorizing the area.

Clay, Blazard and a Vietnamese company under a young lieutenant marched along the canal for several hours after being landed by U. S. Army helicopters early in the morning.

The group met only light resistance but had to move slowly because of Viet Cong spike traps and other "booby trap" devices, and thick jungle growth which blocked the route.

Clay said he stood on the edge of a rice paddy in the afternoon where he could see the action and "rubbed my hands with glee. They (the guerrillas) were moving right toward the regulars."

The Viet Cong, as if sensing the trap, suddenly turned west, Clay related fleeing quickly across canals and rice paddies.

Climb Aboard 'Copter

Clay and Blazard climbed aboard one helicopter while a group of Vietnamese followed in a second to head off the Viet Cong for strafing from the air.

The helicopters swung out in front of the Viet Cong and then roared back, slamming away at guerrillas from 30 caliber machine guns mounted in the exits.

"The Viet Cong hit the ground and returned fire," Clay said.

Clay was in the cockpit directing the pilots, Capt. Robert Corneil and Chief Warrant Officer Benny Potts, when a bullet crashed through the plexiglass canopy with "an awful crack."

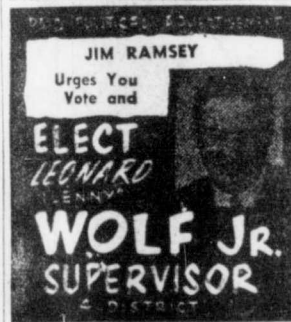

Two more bullets crashed through the bottom and instruments of the helicopter, wounding Corneil in the foot, and Potts in the chest. The round that hit Potts was spent.

Blazard, standing behind Clay, was also hit by flying aluminum and plexiglass.

Asked for his opinion of the quality of Communist troops Clay said "I've never lost my respect for them. They're too clever. And they're disciplined, fanatical killers."

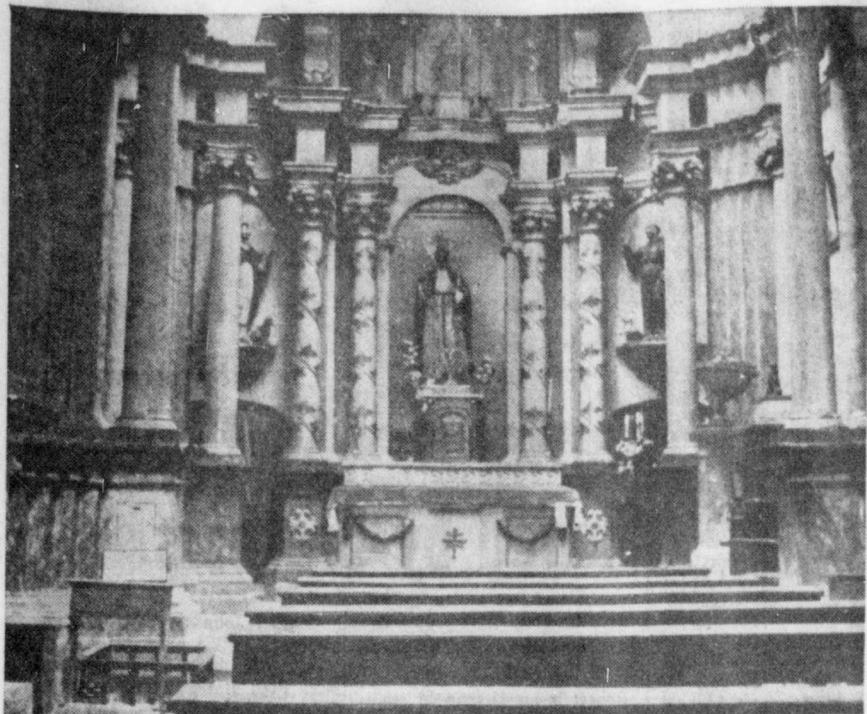

Bans Plane FM

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Aviation Agency has extended for another year its ban on the use of portable FM radios on commercial airliners. Tests have shown such radios could interfere with certain cockpit navigation equipment.

SAINTLY GROUND

MORE than three centuries after his death, Peru's blessed Martin de Porres has achieved sainthood. The mulatto Dominican friar is the patron of Interracial Justice. The process of canonization was virtually completed when the Sacred Congregation of Rites in Rome approved two miracles attributed to Blessed Martin. Photos show the tomb of Peruvian saint in Lima.

LEGAL NOTICE
No. 771
NOTICE TO PERSONS INTERESTED IN THE ESTATE OF LUCILE K. WELLS, DECEASED
Notice is hereby given: That all persons interested, whether as creditors, heirs, legatees, or devisees, in the estate of Lucile K. Wells, deceased, whose last address was Fluke Hill Road, Strubridge, Massachusetts, that letters testamentary or of administration have been issued to William Kelley Hannan, by Worcester Probate Court, a court of competent jurisdiction of the State of Massachusetts.
That each of the following persons is indebted to or holding personal property of the said decedent: Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, Palm Springs Branch, 150 North Palm Canyon Drive, Palm Springs, California.
That the undersigned desires to receive the said personal property or collect the claims and to remove that collected or received from the State of California to the said state where letters testamentary or of administration have been issued.
All persons having claims against the decedent or an interest in said estate and wishing to object to such removal must give written notice of such objection to the person or persons holding the claim or claims made against the decedent, or to the undersigned at the address as listed above within the months after first publication of this notice.

The Most Up-to-Date Method of BUYING and SELLING Real Estate

MULTIPLE LISTING

- It Gets Faster Results!
- It Costs No More!

Thousands of homes have been sold by the efficiency of Realtors offering Multiple Listing Service. This modern cooperative system has conclusively proved to property owners its value as a sales asset. Unlike the "old days" you do not have to shop around from office to office to list your house. Today you sign one agreement with one MULTIPLE LISTING REALTOR, and your listing — along with complete details — is broadcast to its entire membership. Automatically the property you wish to sell is called to the attention of a Sales Force of more than 125 realty experts. Why not call your REALTOR today...

Angels Dumped By Homer, 7-6

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Los Angeles Angels staged a late rally about the time the stock market closed Tuesday, but usually reliable pitcher Jack Spring sold them short.

Spring entered the game against Washington in the top of the 10th inning after the Angels had rallied from a 6-0 deficit. But the Senators' leadoff batter, eccentric Jim Piersall, slammed the third pitch into the left field stands to give Washington a 7-6 win and a split of the two-game series.

It ruined Spring's record of never having lost a game for Los Angeles — he was 3-0 last season and had an identical mark this year — and left the Angels in fifth place in the American League before tonight's two-night doubleheader against the Boston Red Sox in Chavez Ravine.

Spring was the fourth Angel pitcher to be used in the game, a fact that supported the idea behind the Angels' player trade earlier in the day.

Los Angeles swapped relief pitcher Jim Donahue (1-0) with the Minnesota Twins for starting pitcher Don Lee (3-3). Including Tuesday's game, Angel pitchers had gone a full nine innings only 4 times in 42 attempts this season — not exactly news to gladden the heart of Manager Bill Rigney.

Ken McBride, who had pitched one of those four complete games — the other three were by Bo Belinsky — couldn't make it through the fourth inning Tuesday. He gave up six runs and six hits before being replaced.

The Angels blew a chance to win it in the ninth when pinch-runner Gordon Windhorn stood dreamily on third base as the Senators missed a game-ending doubleplay. Windhorn moved from second to third on Bill Moran's ground ball that forced Albie Pearson at second. When first baseman Harry Bright pulled his foot off the bag Moran was safe.

Instead of tearing around third and heading for the plate Windhorn stood on the bag. He remained there when Leon Wagner fled out.

"Windhorn should have kept running," moaned Rigney, "instead of standing there watching what was happening at first base."

Pearson and Thomas topped the 11-hit Angel attack with three apiece, including Albie's double down the left field line that sparked Los Angeles' three-run outburst in the third.

Jockey Files To Run for Governor

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—A Del Mar jockey, who claims he was scratched earlier in the year, wants to make the June 5 primary election race a photo finish.

Charles E. Compton, 48, who describes himself as a jockey, filed suit Monday to have his name entered as candidate for governor in next Tuesday's primary.

His party affiliation was not disclosed.

Superior Judge William Glen, who set a hearing for next Monday, said he tried to persuade Compton not to file the suit.

Filing the action will cost $22.50 and if Compton wins it will cost him another $800 to file for candidacy.

Compton claimed he attempted to file his candidacy March 13 but County Registrar of voters Charles Sexton refused to accept the filing fee because he felt Compton did not meet the 5-year residency requirement.

Perez Wins

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) —Ray Perez, 112, San Jose, Calif., punched his way to the American flyweight title Tuesday night with a 12th round technical knockout victory over Ray Pacheco, 106, Las Vegas.

SEVENTEEN members of the Palm Springs Women's Golf Club were guests of the O'Donnell Golf Club where they staged a "Pros and Protege" tournament. The lady golfers served as judges and hostesses during the Local Yokel event at the O'Donnell CC. First Negro Coach Joins Chicago Cubs

CHICAGO (UPI) The major league's first Negro coach was in a Chicago Cubs' uniform today. He is John Buck O'Neil, a Cub scout since 1956 and the former manager of the Kansas City Monarchs.

O'Neil signed Tuesday as the latest addition to owner P. K. Wrigley's unique board of coaches.

Johnny Green Inks Pro Contract With Lakers

The Los Angeles Lakers announced the receipt of a signed contract from Johnny Green, leading scorer of UCLA's national fourth-place finishers last season. Green thus became the second Laker rookie to come into the fold, although General Manager Lou Mohs expects to have two or three other of the club's draft choices on the line within the next week or so.

Green, a 6'2", 200-pound jump-shooting specialist, led the Bruins to a surprise fourth-place finish in last year's NCAA finals at Louisville, and but for a shot by Cincinnati's Tom Thacker with two seconds to go in the semifinals, UCLA might have been meeting Ohio State in the finals. Then in the consolation round, the Bruins dropped another two-pointer to powerful Wake Forest, to settle for fourth place in the entire country. Fourth place, however, was considerably higher than anybody expected UCLA to finish, and a great deal of the credit for the fine season belongs to the new laker, Johnny Green.

Green led the Bruins from the back-court, dropping in 539 points for the year, to chalk up a 19.3 per game average, the second-highest total in UCLA's history, exceeded only by current NBA star Willie Naulls, who scored 661 for the Bruin in 1955-56.

Green's points led the second-place scorer on UCLA's squad by a fat 171 markers. In addition, his quick moves and quick hands drew frequent fouls. He went to the foul-line 262 times, considerably more than twice as often as any team-mate, and converted 76 per cent of these shots. His field-goal average was 39 per cent, a middling-fair mark for a back-court shooter.

Jumper May Switch To Decathlon

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Ralph Boston said he may try for the 1964 Olympics in the 10-event decathlon instead of his specialty—the broad jump.

Boston, the first man in history to leap 27 feet, told a luncheon gathering of the Southern California Track and Field Writers Association Monday that he "may try it (decathlon) next year."

"My best practice performances in the decathlon events indicate I am close to the marks of men who specialize in that type of competition," Boston said.

Although the holder of the world's broad jumping record appeared confident on his future plans, he reported that his track and field career was jeopardized recently when he chipped an ankle bone while attempting to pole vault.

Boston said he suffered the injury just after the close of the indoor track and field season and was out of training for more than a month.

"That's why I was happy to do 26 feet in the Modesto Relays last weekend," Boston said. "It was only my third competition outdoors."

The Tennessee A. and I. star said he planned to train hard the balance of the week for Saturday night's Compton Invitational meet and for the United States-Russia meet in July.

Hurlers Seeking Joker Who Puts Rabbit in Ball

Those poor long-suffering pitchers considered one of two courses today — either flying the white flag of surrender or tying it around the throat of that practical joker who keeps putting more and more rabbits into the base-balls.

Statistics generally put ball players to sleep. Here are a few though, guaranteed to keep most pitchers awake.

—The total of 22 homers in the six major league games played Tuesday was only five shy of the all-time record for a seven-game slate.

—Nine home runs, only one short of the National League mark, were hit in one game alone. That was the one in which the Milwaukee Braves outlasted the Chicago Cubs, 11-9, despite three homers and a double by Ernie Banks.

—Seven more homers were belted during a game in which the Detroit Tigers bombarded the Baltimore Orioles, 12-4.

The worst may be yet to come, as far as the pitchers are concerned. There are 18 games on tap for today's Memorial Day card. And it was exactly six years ago that the majors set an all-time one-day record of 50 homers, with 26 in the National and 24 in the American.

The Cleveland Indians were idle Tuesday, but still took over sole possession of the AL lead when the Kansas City As nipped the New York Yankees, 2-1.

Jr. Police Wins, 10-9, Over Rotary

The Minor League ball clubs were back in action last night at the Little League Field and the Jr. Police nine edged the Rotary team, 10-9, as each club collected five hits.

In the other contest, the C.V.S.L.A. stickmen pounded out nine hits to defeat the Simsarian jads, 8-3, as hurler Holland gave up only four hits to the Simsarian club.

Tom Paul Fires Hole-in-One at Palm Springs GC

A local golfer, Tom Paul, had quite a day on the links as he scored a hole-in-one on the No. 5 hole at the Palm Springs Golf Course using a four wood to reach the cup 199 yards away.

Before he accomplished this feat he almost scored a double-birdie on the No. 2 hole when he missed the cup by only an inch on his second shot. The No. 2 hole is a par four and by dropping the shot, it would have been registered as a double-birdie.

Phillies Coach in Hospital

DOWNEY, Calif. (UPI) — Manager Gene Mauch of the Philadelphia Phillies was reported in satisfactory condition at Rio Hondo Hospital today following his admission with virus pneumonia, an irritation of the lungs.

Mauch, 36, was ordered to the hospital by Dr. M. H. Musicer, who said the manager's recurring chest pains and cough were the aftermath of an attack of influenza suffered last month.

Dr. Musicer said Mauch would be released Thursday to fly back to Philadelphia, "if all goes well." Phillies Coach Harry (Peanuts) Lowry was named to manage the team in a doubleheader at Philadelphia today and a night game Thursday with the San Francisco Giants.

Mauch's condition was reportedly "of the same sort" that felled comedian Danny Kaye in Las Vegas last week.

The Indianapolis Speedway 500-mile race was twice stopped at shorter distances because of rain. In 1926, the race was halted after 400 miles and in 1950 the cars were flagged down at the 345-mile mark. On both occasions the leaders were declared official winners.

This Could Be the Year for Billy Pierce

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Spring has always been a bad time for slender Billy Pierce but the way things are going for him today this could be a year for an April-October baseball romance.

The early stages of spring were no better for him than usual. Maybe even worse, because he was stepping into a new league with the San Francisco Giants and during the training campaign he didn't look good enough to make the top minors.

But as of this stage, the aging southpaw has won seven games against no defeats and looks happily toward two more milestones.

One will come in his fourth victory hence, when he posts his 200th major league victory. That shouldn't be too far away, from the manner in which he's going, and will put him at a mark surpassed by only three other current campaigners. They are Warren Spahn, Early Wynn and Robin Roberts.

Dreams Of Series
The other, he hopes, will come in October. At that time he has to dream of going to the mound in the World Series. And if it happens that the Giants make it, and their rivals just chance to be the New York Yankees, you won't find Billy too excited. During his long tenure in the American League he beat them 34 times.

Pierce at 35 no longer has that flaming speed which caused the Detroit Tigers to sign him off the Detroit sandlots. But he does have a craftiness and a slow mixture to go with a fair amount of speed, and the combination has made this start a memorable one for him.

In the years after Detroit traded him away to the Chicago White Sox, Billy always had spring trouble with his arm. Despite it, he led the American League with a low earned run average of 1.97 in 1955 and the following two years was a 20-game winner.

Goes To Giants

Last November, after 13 years with the White Sox, they traded him off to the Giants along with Don Larsen. And this spring he had all the old troubles.

"Every time I felt that bad

Romero Scores Hole-in-One at San Jacinto CC

Dave Romero joined the official PGA hole-in-one club when he fired an ace on the 14th hole at San Jacinto Country Club using a seven iron to reach the cup a 118 yards away.

The 3-par hole was aced by Romero as he was playing in the foursome with Jerry Graydon, Ray Perez and John Scheible as they toured the San Jacinto CC course.

arm was coming around they'd hit the ball farther and farther," he moaned.

If he had been a rookie seeking a big league job he wouldn't have been assigned to Triple A ball. But the Giants had faith in his comeback ability and stuck with him. Then came his first regular season start, against the Cincinnati Reds.

"When I was warming up," he admitted, "I felt like a rookie all over again. I had that same long ago nervousness. I knew I just had to make good."

Pierce did. Through seven innings he had the Reds stopped with two hits and he left, with Stu Miller trudging in from the bull pen, only because his arm was tightening. The crowd gave him a standing ovation and Pierce knew that he had been accepted.

Plays Leading Role

The Giants are running strong and Pierce has played a leading role with those amazing seven straight victories. True, he has needed bull pen help in four of them. But it also must be recognized that he has gone the route in three of them, one a three-hit shutout against the Cubs.

As most horse players will admit, you can't win 'em all. So Pierce can't expect to keep going at this same dizzy pace. But with the Giant power behind him, the four he needs for 200 would seem to be in the satchel. And maybe enough more to make him a big man come October. But for a change, the spring has been just fine.
